Cosby opened the meeting

1. DOE-SODI Asset Transition Agreement-Greg Simonton, DOE

Question/Comment:	Answer:
Simonton: I want to introduce Caleb Miller. He is replacing Pete Mingus at FBP. The DOE-SODI asset transition agreement expired February 20 th so we just signed a new agreement for five years.
Cosby: Did you say the agreement was for another five years?	Simonton: Yes, the expired agreement was five years with a five-year renewal.
Galloway: How does the public know when Southern Ohio Diversification Initiative (SODI) has items for sale?	Simonton: Web site, auctions, Facebook. Minter: Web site, a posting period for so

Do they do press releases? SODI does not have Facebook anymore. SODI could notify the Chamber. They could advertise in the Chamber newsletter.	long, newspaper, we also have a vendor list. Howe: What about John Hemmings? He could get the word out.
